PEACE POSTER

Congratulations to Evelyn Remer for winning the Peace Poster contest for our club. We had around 40 entrants and they were all great. It was hard to pick one winner. Evelyn's poster has been sent to the District Governor and will be judged at the District convention in January. Lion Terry is pictured with Evelyn and her poster.

GOVERNOR'S NIGHT

Governor's night has been set for Thursday, December 1st. We will be having a potluck meal at 6:30 p.m. followed by a presentation by Governor Landwehr. After the Governor's presentation we will be having our annual Christmas party with an optional gift exchange. Men bring a man gift and ladies bring a lady gift. Gifts should be kept around a $15.00 value. We are inviting the Vice District Governors, so let's all try to attend and show them our support.

Break! BREAKFBREAKFAST WITH SANTA

Plans are all set to do our breakfast with Santa on Sunday, December 4th. We are working with St. James LWML to have the breakfast at their Fellowship Hall. We will be making the sausage gravy on Saturday, December 3rd at 9:00 a.m. at Lions Hall. We need help to haul supplies to St. James on Saturday morning. The back door of the Fellowship Hall will be open on Sunday at 6:00 a.m. to set up and start preparing the breakfast. Santa and Mrs. Claus will be there from 9:00 – 11:00 a.m.
