Lion Steve Weber

Lion Steve passed away on February 8th. Known to many throughout Howard Lake as “Webs”, he was a true man of service to his friends, family and community. He was a long time staff member at the Howard Lake-Waverly-Winsted Schools as a teacher assistant, and media specialist. Steve’s passion for Laker sports was second to none. He spent countless hours at events dedicating time to taking stats for many football, volleyball, basketball, baseball and softball teams. He was a huge supporter of the Howard Lake Orphans amateur baseball team. Steve also loved to bowl and was secretary of the Men’s Bowling League for many years. Besides being a sports fanatic, he was a loyal member of Howard Lake Lions Club for over three decades. He enjoyed Bingo, golf, and going for walks. Steve was a lifelong member of the St. James Lutheran Church. Our Lion condolences and prayers go out to his wife, Lion Bonnie, his stepdaughter Lion Becky and Lion Steve’s family.
